Special Opening Exhibit and Sale of Parasols for Spring

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

We Invite You to Come

You will acknowledge that it is a really wonderful assembly of the cleverest new models you ever saw—embodying a wealth of originality and beauty that has never been surpassed.

Possibilities are apparently unlimited—the range of styles was never so wide—the colorings never so bright and unusual—combinations never more harmonious nor were the shapes ever more unique and fascinating. Among the very newest in these parasols is the "Vanity Fair," just enough like the Thackeray Period to be faithful, and modern enough to be useful. Another is Palmer's "Empire," made in a direct reverse of the usual style—handle is at top instead of bottom, made in long walking stick style and jointed so that parasol may be packed in suit case.

And there are more than 20 other equally distinctive styles including the Chin-Chin—La Sonnette—Arcadian—La Chapelle—Single and Double Palm and American—Maid—priced from 75c up to $10.

One very noticeable feature of these new parasols is the gold frame on which nearly all are made. It's a pleasing deviation from the old steel ones. Handles are invariably of the walking stick type in different woods and scores of designs.

Leading colors are blues, Dredens, putty and sand, with black and white stripes and checks occupying a prominent place. Covers are of silk with tassels to match.

Over One Hundred Parasols Specially Priced for the Opening Day

All new this year's styles. Silk covers and tassels to match. There's a splendid variety of colors and color combinations—the favored shapes, including quaint creations that savor of the Orient and others that remind one of the old Liberty Bell, with many pleasing variations of both styles.

These represent a purchase made at a special price and are offered as special inducements for you to come and see the hundreds of others that we have assembled. Thursday, Friday and Saturday you may take your pick of these $3.50 to $4.00 Parasols for..... $2.98

Parasols for Children are priced from..... 15c to $2.50

630 KANSAS AVENUE, TOPEKA

Maiden doesn't thank him—
Now I wonder why?

Wheat fields in the vicinity of Topeka are reported to be in fine condition.

A hawk and a silver pheasant have recently been added to the Gage park "zoo."

The State Journal has installed a special baseball telephone, No. 284, so please call that number when you want the score.

L. C. Rahn is remodeling his Capital Shirt Factory store at 624 Kansas avenue. Rahn recently purchased the Matt Glasse interests in the tailoring business.

Rosela Durant and Jennie Glenn are confined at the municipal menagerie on a charge of street walking. They were picked up by J. E. Billings. Both the women are colored.

Thomas Ryan, cable foreman in charge of new cable work in Topeka for the Bell Telephone company, has been appointed division cable foreman, headquarters in this city.

The College Hill Volley Ball club has reorganized for the summer season. The club will play the first game

Friday evening on the courts on College avenue near Huntington street.

The Shawnee County W. C. T. U. will convene at 9:30 Friday, April 23, at the Central Congregational church. The president, Mrs. Clara Baker, will be in charge. Gold medal declamation contest, 8 p. m.

The Senior Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church will give a banquet tonight at 7 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. Following the banquet the officers for the ensuing six months will be installed.

One neighborhood in the southwestern section of the city is so well supplied with children that the residents are planning to apply to the city commissioners for a permit to establish a "go slow" zone for automobiles along the street.

Workmen are clearing away the debris from the burned building formerly occupied by the Palace Clothing company in preparation for the workmen and rebuilders. A hundred or more wagonloads of material have been hauled from the place.

The fruit trees in and around Topeka are in full bloom. The plum trees give out a fragrance that can be detected for many blocks. The shade trees are budding in a touch of green and the lawns are undergoing their first combat with the mowers.

Gust Peterson, a Swede, is booked at the police station on a charge of drunkenness. When arrested Tuesday night Peterson was unable to tell his own name and was at that time booked as John Doe. He was fined $5 by Judge Yates this morning.

J. J. Carlin will succeed J. A. Zook as superintendent of the Topeka district of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Zook, who has been here for two years, has been transferred to the Kansas City office of the company. He has made a good record in Topeka.

Mayor House appears excited over the State Journal's ha-ha attitude on the recent appointment qualifications.

The genial mayor has for years conducted a non-combatable ha-ha newspaper column. He shouldn't reserve good-natured criticism now that he is in public office.

A recent map issued by the Bell Telephone company shows Europe with the outline of the United States across the face of the foreign nations. Where is Kansas? Yep, you guessed it! Kansas is located right over the zone where the heaviest fighting is in progress! Just like Kansas!

The following births were reported at the office of the city clerk today: William Wilson and wife, R. F. D. No. 8, April 15, boy; J. S. Reedy and wife, 2814 Madison street, April 17, boy; J. H. Mitchell and wife, 219 West Gordon street, April 20, girl; Robert Bruce Smith and wife, 1308 Taylor street, April 15, girl.

J. L. Hackenberry was booked at the county jail today as a United States prisoner on a charge of violating the federal liquor laws. More arrests of a similar nature are expected in the next few days as a large number of liquor indictments were ground out by the grand jury which convened in Topeka last week.

Abandonment and that the defendant is living at Tulsa, Okla., under an assumed name, are allegations made in the petition for divorce filed in the Shawnee county district court by Metta Murrell against James Murrell. The couple were married in 1912 and are the parents of one child, Mervin Murrell. The plaintiff asks divorce and the custody of the child.

An intoxicated well dressed middle aged man was staggering down Ninth street just off Kansas avenue about 7:30 o'clock this morning. "Good morning!" a cheerful citizen plodding to work said to him. The drunk man stopped, wheeled on one foot, glared at the happy laborer and growled: "Good morning, eh—hic, hic—good morning h— I say 'bad night'."

The current issue of the "Southwestern Telephone News," published in St. Louis and edited by C. A. Cairn, formerly of Topeka, contains an article on "The Brave Blind Girl and the Telephone," in reference to the late Pearl Alice Ladd of Topeka. The magazine also prints a picture of the two children of Lineman H. J. Conway of the Bell Telephone company of this city.

Jesse Shaw, superintendent of the city water department, and Frank Newland, city commissioner of that department, should come to an understanding. Shaw was asked how sprinkling rates would be put in effect for the present season. He replied that he thought it would be only a few days. A few minutes later Newland was asked the same question. "Oh, probably not until July 1," was his answer.

"I have just returned from a shopping trip to Kansas City," an unknown woman telephoned to the State Journal this afternoon. "I want to warn the ladies of Topeka who think they must go to a larger city to buy—don't leave Topeka. I came back from my shopping trip with a greater regard for the Topeka store than I had before. I had a box of candy, a railway ticket and a jitney fare—that is all I left behind me in Kansas City."

Rev. A. J. Ross of the First German M. E. church has left Topeka to attend the district conference of the Kansas City district at Carder, Mo. He will be home to occupy the pulpit Sunday. A paper will be read by Rev. Ross: "The Sabbath Question." The Deutsche Verein of Washburn college will attend the services at the New German M. E. church, corner Tyler and West Fifth streets, this Sunday evening. Special sermon and music. Lee Sidwell, who for 18 months was
